

the use of domestic coal this Colorado. The well-known Manufacturers. Malt-
Malt and Beer. Indian Malt and Beer. Anthracite and Bituminous Coal. Petroleum and Gasoline. Steam Coal.
Coal and Gasoline. Coal Gasoline. Coal and Gasoline.

LILLEY & BIBB,
Linen and Cotton.

Page 147.

Fort Worth Daily Gazette.

MAILABLE EDITION.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1894.

VOL. XVIII—NO. 93.

D. E. HIRSHFIELD & CO.,

Pittsburgh, Pa., Fort Worth,

RAILROAD TICKET BROKERS.

We can save patrons from $1 to $10 each railroad ticket purchased. Being members of

AMERICAN TRAVELERS' ASSOCIATION,

We have over 400 correspondents throughout the United States.

D. E. HIRSHFIELD & CO.,

200 Almon Street, San Antonio, Tex.

SAFES
RAPPERS.
We place on sale 100 Percal wrappers at Little's Percal wrappers two styles we believe the best bargain that we yet offered in this ment. Who would with the making of garments when you buy them well made,
cut and styles, at prices. Second floor, elevator.

Y. SMITH & CO.

TRAIL ROBBERS.

TO HAVE EXISTED

IN THE MINDS

detectives and a "Newspaper." The Detectives See a Free Ride on the back of the Story.

Special Dispatch.

Anita, Tex., Feb. 23.—The Federal grand jury today indicted W. S. Doreland, cashier of the Llano national bank for perjury, and G. W. Kether, president of the same bank, for making false entries in his report to the comptroller of the currency.

M. L. Wood was indicted in nine cases for misappropriation of funds in the Brady national bank.

MORE BANK WRS.

The Federal Grand Jury Indict C. of the Llano National Bank Perjury and False Statements.

Special Dispatch.

Anita, Tex., Feb. 23.—The Federal
grand jury today indicted W. S. Doreland, cashier of the Llano national bank for perjury, and G. W. Kether, president of the same bank, for making
false entries in his report to the comptroller of the currency.

M. L. Wood was indicted in nine cases for misappropriation of funds in the

Brady national bank.

TWO LICENSES.

Were out to Change Miss Harris' Name and She Married the Last One.

Special Dispatch.

Dallas, Tex., Feb. 23.—S. M. Kellar applied at one of the city's clerks office yesterday and took out a license to marry Anna Belle Harris, well known in Dallas social circles. The wedding was to have taken place at the bride's home last evening. At 7:30 W. J. A.
Bridges, a well-known young business man, secured a license, secured the girl and Rev. J. J. Schmid made them man and wife. Kellar, who is a business man, was out over the time around last evening. The affair is the talk of the town. Miss Rodgers is a very beautiful and charming woman.

GEN. CARELL AT HOME.

Special Dispatch.

Dallas, Tex., Feb. 23.—Gen. W. J.
Carell has returned from Honduras. He encountered a violent storm at sea and a few Honduras rebels, but is none the worse for the exciting experience.

BIGELOW JOHNSON,
Special Dispatch.

Dallas, Tex., Feb. 23.—S. M. Kellar
applied at one of the city's clerks office
yesterday and took out a license to
marry Anna Belle Harris, well known in Dallas social circles. The wedding was to have taken place at the bride's home last evening. At 7:30 W. J. A.
Bridges, a well-known young business
man, secured a license, secured the girl
and Rev. J. J. Schmid made them
man and wife. Kellar, who is a business man, was out over
the time around last evening. The affair is the talk of the town. Miss Rodgers is a very beautiful and charming
woman.

THE DEMOCRATS.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 23.—The Democrats were evidently anxious
when the house met to extricate themselves from the complications arising from the wholesale arrest of members by a select committee of the house on account of their conduct in the recent disturbance which characterized yesterday's proceedings were not repeated today, the proceedings were fully as intense.

The Democrats were evidently anxious

when the house met to extricate themselves
from the complications arising
from the wholesale arrest of members
by a select committee of the house
on account of their conduct in
the recent disturbance which characterized
yesterday's proceedings were not repeated today, the proceedings were fully as intense.

THE DEMOCRATS.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 23.—The
Democrats were evidently anxious
when the house met to extricate themselves
from the complications arising
from the wholesale arrest of members
by a select committee of the house
on account of their conduct in
the recent disturbance which characterized
yesterday's proceedings were not repeated today, the proceedings were fully as intense.

A MINE ON FIRE.

Special Dispatch.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 23.—Fire was devoured this morning in the main shaft of the Springfield junction coal mine here, which will likely destroy the entire plant, entailing a loss of $100,000. It is thought the men are not all out of the mine, and there are entertainments under way with the after work men, the aim to rob the train and to create the impression that they are on the trail of the miners.

SUSPECTED CATTLE THIEVES.

Special Dispatch.

Waco, Tex., Feb. 23.—Sheriff

Merrell arrested two negroes, John and Willard Garner, this morning on suspicion of cattle stealing. They brought a very fine herd to town and were offering to the butchers for a nominal price. After being arrested one tried to make his escape. When he was fired upon by the sheriff and received two different shots at their identity.

They will be tried for cattle stealing tomorrow.

ELLIS COUNTY'S LOCAL OPTION.

Special Dispatch.

Waxahachie, Tex., Feb. 23.—Ellis county's local option contest, which comes off on the 1st of next month, is beginning to surface. There is talk of joint of tates and circulars are now in press for the poll.

HOGG REMITS A PENALTY.

Special Dispatch.

Galveston, Tex., Feb. 23.—Governor

James S. Hogg has filed the following proclamation in the county clerk's office of Galveston:

"Whereas, on November 16, A. D. in the decade of Galveston county, state of Texas, judgment for $1000 for penalty for failing to make and file the annual report of public accounts of the state of Texas for the fiscal year ending October 1, 1893, was entered against the Galveston and Western railway; and

Whereas, after considering the facts, it is found that the defendants are tolerably well known, but the whole are considered absent out of sight. There is no record of a good crop year.

Defendant's contumacy will be a focus to the punishment of the present incumbent

Speaker of the House.

Several candidates are now in the race that considerable attention is to the applicants.

GEORGE W. SMITH,

Secretary of State.

SPORTING.

NEW ORLEANS RACES.

By Associated Press.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 23.—The day was rainy and cold and the track very heavy.

First race—Five furlongs. Rediff won.

Billy Duncan second. Blue Eyes third.

Time, 1:49.

Second race—One mile. London Smoker won. Progresso second. Best Harte third. Time, 1:54-2.

Third race—Six furlongs. Marly won.

Bill Hartington second. Kastell third.

Time, 1:54.

Fourth race—one mile. Tease, Jr. won.

Westfield second. Houser third.

Time, 1:54-3.

Fifth race—Five furlongs. Persian won.

Laurel second. Little Bowline third.

Time, 1:54-5.

SAFETY MATTERS.

Feb. 23.—Chartered

Medical and Surgical Insurance Company.

Medical and Surgical Insurance Company.